

My Dream Life

I wake up each morning appreciating my brilliance and I allow through the limitless love and joy of the universe.

I am eager for the new adventures of the day.

I treat each day as its own brand new day and only bring from the yesterdays those things that are of benefit to me today.

I am so nice...to myself.

I enjoy getting the opportunity to serve all things.

I only do the things in my day that nurture my soul.

I have an absolute knowing in the core of my being that all is well and I trust in the perfection of the universe.

My interests are varied and I am open to many different subjects – arts, science, philosophy, spirituality and the like - they are all a part of me and I participate in them not to be recognized as great at them but because I enjoy them.

I see the beauty in all things and have the courage to speak my truth.

I am worthy of all that is good and claim it easily.

I look in the mirror and love who and what I see!
